

United States Bankruptcy Court
Eastern District of Pennsylvania

In re:

George C. Fox,
Lauren K. Fox,

Debtors.

Case No. 20-10524-amc

Chapter 13

Notice of Amendment to Bankruptcy Schedule C (Exemptions) and Notice of Deadline to Object

Your rights may be affected. You should read these papers carefully and discuss them with your attorney, if you have one in this bankruptcy case. (If you do not have an attorney, you may wish to consult an attorney).

The law permits debtors to keep certain property as exempt. On April 18, 2023, the Debtors in this case filed an amended Schedule C to claim certain exemptions. A copy of the amended schedule is enclosed, and the following summarizes the amendment:

Brief Description of the Property and line on Schedule A/B that lists the property	Current value of the portion you own	Amount of the Exemption you claim	Specific law that allows the exemption
Settlement proceeds from personal injury claim (George Fox, et al v The Franklin Mills Mall, et al. Date of Loss: 10/26/2000 - Counsel: Law Offices of Daniel J. Siegel, LLC)	$20,000.00	$20,000.00	11 U.S.C. § 522(d)(11)(D)

If you believe that the law does not authorize the new exemption claimed, then on or before Thursday, May 18, 2023, you or your attorney must file an objection. If you are required to file documents electronically by Local Bankruptcy Rule 5005-1, you must file your objection electronically.

If you are not required to file electronically, you must file your objection at U.S. Bankruptcy Court, 900 Market Street, Suite 400, Philadelphia, PA 19107. If you mail your objection to the bankruptcy clerk's office for filing, you must mail it early enough so that it will be received on or before the deadline above.

On the same day that you file or mail your objection, you must mail or deliver a copy of the objection to the Debtors' attorney:
